What stood out to you from today's message?

Read 2 John 1:1-13

The word "truth" appears five times in this letter. Compare and contrast the different ways it is used. Now do the same thing with "love."

Read John 8:31-32; John 16:13; John 17:17 & John 18:37-38

How do these passages from John's Gospel further your understanding of truth?

What kind of connections does John make between truth and love? Why is this important?

Have you ever struggled to believe any part of the Apostle's Creed? Why?

Which is harder for you: Showing love to someone or speaking truth to someone? Why?

How is Jesus challenging you today? How is he encouraging you?

PRAY

Heavenly Father, you have shown us truth and love in your Son, Jesus Christ. But so often, we choose to love without truth or to speak truth without love. Forgive us for our sentimentalism and our judgementalism. By your Holy Spirit, guide us into truth and fill us with your love that we might love you and our neighbors more fully. Amen
